WHEN EXPERT ADVICE MATTERS

MARK BARTMAN MAJOR GENERAL (RET.), US AIR FORCE

Mark Bartman is a Personnel Policy and Systems Expert for Military Experts, LLC, a consulting firm that advises businesses and attorneys nationwide on military issues.

General Bartman retired from the Air Force in 2019 after 37 years of military service. In General Bartman's final military duty assignment, he served as the Adjutant General, Ohio National Guard, Joint Force Headquarters, Columbus, Ohio. As Adjutant General, he was a member of the Governor's cabinet and was responsible for the command of the Ohio National Guard and the military readiness of the Ohio Militia. The Ohio National Guard consists of the Ohio Army National Guard, Ohio Air National Guard, Ohio Military Reserve, and Ohio Naval Militia, totaling more than 16,000 personnel. General Bartman led the flag officer heads of these components in the day-to-day operation and management of the readiness, fiscal, personnel, equipment, and real property resources of the agency.

General Bartman graduated from The Ohio State University in 1982 and entered military service in September 1982 through the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps program as a distinguished graduate from Detachment 645. General Bartman served in numerous staff and operations positions in the United States Air Force and the Ohio Air National Guard to include serving as the Air National Guard lead to the Chief of Staff of the Air Force for the Total Force Task Force and commanding the 180th Fighter Wing. He is a command pilot with more than 3,200 flying hours, including 29 combat missions in Operations Provide Comfort, Northern Watch, and Southern Watch.

General Bartman is available to provide consulting or testifying expert witness services by arrangement through Military Experts, LLC.
